DESIGN STUDIES

Index to Volume 6, Numbers 1–4, 1985, pp 1–240

SUBJECT INDEX

A

Action factory 230
Application of multiple objective optimization theory to a preliminary missile design study 83
Architectural theory 141
Architecture 163
Architecture of the city reinterpreted: a critical review 141
L'architettura della citta 141
Attitudes towards an open plan office 196
Attributes 91

B

Books and publications

ACARD, HMSO, Standards, regulations, certification and approvals 115
Barnes, B and Edge, D Science in context 117
Bernsen, J Design: the problem comes first 115
Blackwell, W Geometry in architecture 174
Clarke, R V G and Mayhew, P (eds) Designing out crime 60
Donoghue, D The arts without mystery 116
Douglas, G, Kemp, P and Cook, J Systematic new product development 61
Easterby, R and Swaga (eds) 'Information design: the design and evaluation of signs and printed material' 119
Freeman, C (ed) Design, innovation and long cycles in economic development 238

McCall, M W, Kaplan, R E and Gerlach, M L Caught in the act: decision makers at work 174
Piatier, A Barriers to innovation 115
Prak, N L Architects: the noted and the ignored 60
Rank Zerox (UK) Ltd Brave new world?: living with IT 63
Ray, G F The diffusion of mature technologies 173
Richardson, A Participation 236
Rosenberg, N Inside the black box: technology and economics 119
Roth, K Konstruieren mit Konstruktionskatalogen 62
Somerville, I Software engineering 172
Papanek V Design for human scale 237
Zunde, J M Design procedures 119

Built environment 141

C

Chill 51
Cognitive styles 157
Computer aided architectural design 134
Computer-aided design 157

Conference and Exhibition Reports

The good design guide – 100 best ever products 169

Configuration management 51
Creative design 107
Creative marketing and innovative consumer product design – some case studies 41
Customers 7

D

Design and marketing integration 41
Design audits 51
Design awareness 73
Design education 157
Designer as chameleon 111
Designing for people or ball-bearings? 163
Designer as 'gatekeeper' in manufacturing industry 127
Design in small manufacturing companies in Scotland 18
Design or problem solving – a critical choice for the engineering profession 107
Design philosophy 122, 127, 163
Design principles 150
Design process and the 'crisis' in the UK information technology industry 34
Designer roles 111
Design strategies 157
Design through selection: a method that works 91
Determinism 163
Diversification opportunities and design 41
Drawing office 111

E

Employment 57
Engineering design 107
Environmental psychology 163
Epistemological chaos 66
Epistemological incertitude 66
Epistemology 122
Ergonomics in design education: a user-centred approach 73
Evaluation exercise 73

F

Factory work groups 218
'Fix-it' 107
Freeze 51
Functionalism 163

H

Human factors 18
Human responses to the office work environment 203

I

Ideation 91
Industry 150
Information technology 34
Innovation 57
Inquiring systems 66

J

Japanese product design 25
Japanese-style management, product design and corporate strategy 25

M

Managing design in the new product development process – methods for company executives 51

Manufacturing 127
Marketing 25
Mind-body 66
Missing link: women and industrial design 150
Modular laboratories for instructional use 213
Multiple objective optimization 83

N

New work station 209

O

Organizational self assessment 181

Participatory planning 134
Perception 122
Plastics 127
Problem-solving 107
PROCES 83
Product design 18
Production engineering 25
Product visual identity and consumer recognition 41

Qualitative market research 41
Quick-and-dirty 73

R

Rankings 91
Research 25
Robust design 7
Role switching 111

S

Science and perception as design 122
Science, technology and design 66
Selection-DSP 91
Small businesses 18
Solution analysis 91
Solution sensitivity 83
State space model 83
Styles of learning, designing and computing 157

T

Technology for people – the Greater London Council's innovation and employment strategy 57
Techne 66
Tough customers: good designs 7

U

Urbigraph: a computer aid for design participation 134
User-feedback 7
User needs 34
User needs programme for a research facility 187

W

Women 150
Workforce participation in the design of a warehouse 223
